ANGIE WANG

NEWS EDITOR &
VIDEO JOURNALIST

CONTACT

- 510-371-1471
- angiezwang@gmail.com
- https://angie.wang
- @byangiewang
- @angiewang.jpg
- /in/angiezwang

SKILLS

Leading teams; giving and receiving feedback; having fair conversations; reporting and writing; photography and videography; FAA-licensed drone pilot; photo and video editing; live broadcasting using LiveU and Dejero; basic HTML and CSS; gathering and verifying user-generated content; conversational Chinese

AWARDS

Pulitzer Travel Grant

Awarded in 2018 to the top four M.S. students at Columbia Journalism School

California College Media Association's Best Sports Photograph, 2017

Photographed UCLA gymnast Sophina DeJesus at the end of her hip hop-inspired floor routine that went viral, capturing her reaction to the performance in a photo that ran in The New York Times

Bridget O'Brien Reporting Scholarship

Worked with two colleagues at the UCLA Daily Bruin to report on undocumented students' access to higher education across the United States

Won California College Media Association's Best News Series in 2016

EXPERIENCE

NEWS EDITOR, VIDEO | THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
JULY 2023 – PRESENT

- Oversee video coverage of the biggest stories in New York and Connecticut, from the annual United Nations General Assembly to the first criminal trial and conviction of a former U.S. president
- Manage visual resources on the ground of major national news events, including the assassination attempt of Donald Trump in Butler, Pennsylvania, and the mass shooting in Lewiston, Maine
- Lead a veteran team based in New York and mentor other video journalists and producers across the country

VIDEO JOURNALIST | THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
SEPTEMBER 2021 – JULY 2023

- Video coverage of public health, science and climate news, including breaking coronavirus pandemic developments
- Humanized topics in medicine and research to demonstrate implications in key areas like fetal viability, which was central to U.S. abortion law, and the age-old quest for vitality late in life
- Honed writing, shooting at NPPA's Advanced Storytelling Workshop

VIDEO PRODUCER | THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
DECEMBER 2019 – SEPTEMBER 2021

- Video coverage of the U.S. South, including protests in Louisville after Breonna Taylor's death, damage to the Gulf Coast in the wake of Hurricane Sally and the toll of COVID-19 on a rural Georgia county with one of the highest per capita death rates in the country
- Provided wall-to-wall coverage of the 2020 election and shot live video from the U.S. Capitol during President Joe Biden's inauguration
- Directed AP's video report on Derek Chauvin's murder trial in the death of George Floyd, including the white officer's rare conviction on all three counts and the nation's reaction to the verdict
- Provided in-house and member-shot live video and edits to AP clients
- Acted as the final set of eyes on video edits filed from U.S. regions

VIDEO JOURNALIST | THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
JUNE 2018 – NOVEMBER 2019

- Video coverage of news across Ohio, from the Ku Klux Klan rally, mass shooting and tornadoes that slammed Dayton to an order from federal judges demanding the state legislature redraw a gerrymandered congressional map before major elections in 2020
- Shot, produced, wrote and edited national stories, including videos showing the human cost of the opioid crisis and U.S.-China trade war
- Trained visual journalists to shoot video and edit in Adobe Premiere
- Developed off-the-news enterprise stories, including a look at the tent city controversy that spurred a legal battle between Cincinnati officials and advocates for the city's homeless population

EDUCATION

COLUMBIA JOURNALISM SCHOOL   MAY 2018

- Published an analysis on whether news coverage of a Brooklyn neighborhood perpetuates its violent image despite a decline in crime
- Embedded within an elementary school using a "looping" model to foster close relationships between students and teachers

UCLA   MARCH 2017

- B.A. in communication studies with a specialization in computing